Flight LG655 to Ibiza Safely Returns to Luxembourg Following Technical Incident

Today, 12 August 2025, flight LG655 from Luxembourg to Ibiza returned to Luxembourg as a precautionary measure due to a technical incident during the flight. The Luxair De Havilland Q400 landed safely without any further issues. Passengers were kept informed by the captain and crew, and flight safety was ensured at all times.

Luxair is taking care of the affected customers at the airport. A replacement flight is being organised for tomorrow morning, and customers in Luxembourg and Ibiza are being assisted by the Luxair and LuxairTours teams.

Luxair apologises for the inconvenience caused and thanks all passengers for their understanding. While every effort is made to avoid disruptions, the safety of passengers and crew remains Luxair's top priority, and in some cases, unforeseen events may affect operations.
